Centerplate Fact Sheet:

Overview: Centerplate is a global leader in live event hospitality, "Making It Better To Be There®" for more than 116 million guests each year at more than 300 prominent entertainment, sports and convention venues. Strategically acquired in December 2017 by world leader in Quality of Life services Sodexo, Centerplate has provided event hospitality services to more than 30 official U.S. Presidential Inaugural Balls, 14 Super Bowls and 22 World Series. Visit the company online at Centerplate.com, connect via Twitter @centerplate, Instagram @Centerplate_ or Facebook.com/centerplate.

In convention centers specifically, Centerplate curates creative retail concepts offering healthy and sustainable menus, using as many local products as possible. Centerplate also works directly with a variety of local organizations to facilitate the food donation process for clients, ensuring viable food and beverage products are donated to the most suitable recipients.
